Maritime Safety Administration of the PRC will launch a Concentrated Inspection Campaign (CIC) on the Maritime Labor Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006). The aim of the CIC is to verify that the minimum standards for working and living conditions have been implemented on board. This inspection campaign will be held for a period of one month, commencing from 12th November, 2016 and ending till 11 December 2016.

Port State Control Officers (PSCOs) will use the following list of 11 selected questions to inspect:

1. Are seafarers under the age of 18 excluded from tasks that are likely to jeopardize their safety or health?
2. Are all seafarers holding valid certificate(s) attesting medical fitness?
3. Have all seafarers successfully completed their training for personal safety on board?
4. Do all seafarers have a copy of their seafarers' employment agreement? Are the seafarers' employment agreements in compliance with minimum standard required by MLC?
5. If private recruitment and placement service has been used, does it meet the requirements of the MLC, 2006?
6. Are records of inspections of seafarer accommodations carried out by the master (or another designated person) available for review?

7. Are frequent inspections carried out by or under the authority of the master, with respect to supplies of food and drinking water, all spaces and equipment used for the storage and handling of food and drinking water, and galley and other equipment for the preparation and service of meals documented?
8. Has a ships safety committee been established on board regarding ships on which there are five or more seafarers? And evidences for inspecting, reporting and correcting unsafe conditions, and for investigating and reporting on-board occupational accidents.
9. For a ship not being required to carry a medical doctor, is there on board at least one seafarer, holder of a certificate of training in medical first aid or in medical care that meets the requirements of STCW?
10. Are all seafarers provided with a copy of on-board complaint procedures applicable on the ship?
11. Have all seafarers received monthly accounts of their payments due and amounts paid?

SUGGESTION:

Kindly remind the company carry out a self-inspection according to the above checklist, and make necessary preparation for inspection.
