ATHENS CONVENTION RELATING TO THE CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS AND THEIR LUGGAGE BY SEA, 1974

Denunciation by the Russian Federation

The Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization has the honour to refer to article 25 of the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, 1974 (PAL 1974), the terms of which provide that a Party may denounce the Convention at any time after its entry into force for that Party.

The Protocol of 2002 to the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, 1974 (PAL PROT 2002) to which the Russian Federation acceded on 16 January 2019, provides in article 17(5) as follows:

"A State shall not express its consent to be bound by this Protocol unless, if Party thereto, it denounces:

- (a) the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, done at Athens on 13 December 1974;
- (b) the Protocol to the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, done at London on 19 November 1976; and
- (c) the Protocol of 1990 to amend the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea, done at London on 29 March 1990, with effect from the time that this Protocol shall enter into force for that State in accordance with article 20."

The Secretary-General has the honour to state that denunciation of PAL 1974 by the Russian Federation was effected by means of an instrument of denunciation received on 16 January 2019.

In accordance with article 17(5) of PAL PROT 2002, the denunciation of PAL 1974 will take effect for the Russian Federation on 16 April 2019, the day on which PAL PROT 2002 will enter into force for the Russian Federation.
